Charities

As a church committee we decided to choose charities this year with which congregation members are actively involved. Based on the suggestions we received we decided at our meeting on 19th July to support the following six charities and give them £200 each:

- 1) September: Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod bursary fund
- 2) November: Javea in Nepal
- 3) January: Chirk Hospital Circle of Friends
- 4) March: Tearfund
- 5) May: Chirk Court
- 6) July: NSPCC

All of these will be well known to us apart from Javea in Nepal. This is a small charity which has done all sorts of things to help improve the lives of the poor people of Nepal. It has provided clean water, healthcare facilities and rebuilt homes after the earthquake. This project is called 'Bricks of Hope'. More information may be found at: <http://www.javea-in-nepal.org.uk/index.html>

Thank you to all who have suggested charities and also for the all the charities which you support. Together we make a real difference to those in need.

Please give Matt any notices which you would like included next week by Thursday. Thanks.
