General Notices

Singing and refreshments in Church: I am pleased to announce that we are now able to sing in church whilst wearing masks. Tea and coffee have resumed after morning service in Chirk every other Sunday. It will be on again next Sunday.

Canon Kate Tiltman's Farewell Service: Join us at St. Mary's Church, Ruabon today at 3pm as we say goodbye to our Mission Area leader.

Mission Area Quiet Day: at St. Dyfnog's church, Llanrhaeadr (between Ruthin and Denbigh) next Saturday 2nd October 10am – 3pm. The church is well known for its Jesse window, completed in 1533. Above and behind the church lies the ancient well, fed by springs, and is believed to have healing powers. In the middle ages St. Dyfnog's well became a place of pilgrimage and healing. Please bring a packed lunch. If you would like a lift speak to Matt.

Harvest Family Services: On Sunday 3rd October we will be having family services at both churches. Please bring gifts for the Food bank to the service: cereal, soup, pasta, rice, tinned tomatoes/ pasta sauce, lentils, beans and pulses, tinned meat, tinned vegetables, tea/coffee, tinned fruit, biscuits, UHT milk, fruit juice. Thank you.

A History of the Priests of St. Mary's Church: Graham Greasley has very kindly produced his latest booklet which focuses on the Vicars of Chirk. These booklets are available to buy for £3.50 either from the table at the back of church or from a warden. I am very grateful to Graham for all his hard work and support once again, and I hope you will enjoy reading about my predecessors, some of which you may remember well. Graham has raised the money to print the booklets from local businesses so I am delighted to say that 100% of the money is going to the church.
